title „MIGRATION AND ITS INFLUENCE ON SOCIETY AND CULTURE

- Call for papers -

areas of interest

Migration is one of the most important social and cultural phenomena of our times which has already been discussed and scientifically analyzed in many research projects and scholarly publications. In the POLONIA JOURNAL we will focus on this topic in the context of the influence of this phenomenon on societies and cultures. We propose the following thematic areas, some of them general and the other more specific, such as:

Area I – history of migration

Area II – theories of migration – classifications and divisions

Area III – migrations in the XX and XXI centuries

Area IV – migrations from Poland and to Poland

Area V – the influence of migration on literature, high culture, popular culture and visual arts
